EVERY MAN HIS OWN HOME—WE MAY SAY
L what we like about the land of freedom, but it strikes me the freedom is all on one side, when our landlord adds another 525 to the rent, as they have almost all done this year; and because we hesitate, be tells us we are free to evacuate his premises. The fact is, the immense advance in the rents this year has opened the eyes of the public, who are beginning to perceive that, with a little management, they can have a home of their own. Far more healthy and agreeable than what they have been accustomed to. The consequence of this is, that many parcels of land have been laid out in village lots, varying from 25 by 100 feet to half are parcels, and over.
There are, however, many things to be considered before making up our minute where we instead to locate. In the
